COMMUNITY COVENANT
- WORK CREW

This is a covenant (promise) made by all event participants, sponsors, leaders, etc. You may not attend the event unless you, your parents and your youth sponsor have agreed to the terms stated in this covenant, and shown your agreement with appropriate signatures at the bottom.

- Respect should be given to all participants of this event.
- No inappropriate behaviour (as determined by the leadership of the event) will be tolerated. This is a Christian event. Think before you act.
- The possession or use of alcohol or drugs will result in expulsion.
- Those under 21 years of age are not allowed to drive to and from the camp.
- Participants are expected to respect both camp and individual property and will be financially responsible for willful destruction of either.
- No pets, fireworks, firearms, knives, or other weapons are permitted.
- All participants must remain at the facility the entire event. If there is an emergency and the participant must leave, he/she must notify his/her adult sponsor and event leader before leaving either with sponsor or parent/guardian.
- Male and female participants may not be in dorm facilities designated for the opposite sex.
- Participants must inform their leaders where they will be at all times.
- Sponsors will stay in the dorms with the youth they bring.
- Sponsors are responsible for the young people in their group. This includes finances, transportation to and from the event, free time, large group times, and physical safety. They are also responsible for the social and spiritual needs of the young people under their care.
- Sponsors will enforce community regulations and norms with their group and live by these regulations and norms themselves.
- As this is a large group of people, a general sense of respect during sleeping hours, etc. will be maintained in all of the dorms. This is also not an event for practical jokes; they are rarely ever practical and almost never respectful of others.
- All participants are responsible to be on time to the events scheduled throughout the weekend.
- All participants will respect and obey the event leadership.

I have read and understand the expectations set forth. I understand that failure to comply with any of these will result in disciplinary measures, including being sent home from the retreat at the convenience of the event staff and at the expense of me and/or my family. By signing this document, I will comply with the general community regulations. I understand that this document must be completed and signed in order to participate in this event.
