

Saturday Seminars

Seminars and/or locations are subject to change.

| Title  | Description   | Seminar Leader   | Location                 |
|--|---|--|--------------------------|
| Do Justice  |   |  |                          |
| #01—Youth Making A Difference                                  | Discovering the connection between the opportunity for serving in a hurting world and passions, gifts and next steps to actively pursue a way to make a difference.   | The Rev. Bob DavidsonAn experienced youth leader and Episcopal priest from Loveland.Krista CauffmanTrained educator and life coach   | Wigwam                   |
| # 02— Leading Mission Trips                                    | Why go on a mission? From the initial taking action to what kind of trip is best for you, to what you can expect and do to prepare. Lots of good information for leaders too!   | Christin OlsenYouth director at Good Shepherd, Centennial  | Chisca upper lounge      |
| # 03— Global Causes  | Experience first hand how you can be involved in making a positive change in the world. Learn about different ways of getting involved and why!   | Samantha HynesA social worker has gone to Africa 3 times as a volunteer working with Aids/HIV  | Tenderfoot Lobby         |
| Love Kindness   |   |  |                          |
| # 04—U2charist: Healing & Hope                                 | Come and see a unique, interactive service with great music that delivers powerful messages. If you don't already know and love U2, you will after this seminar!  | Don MartinsonYouth leader at St. Mary Magdalene, Boulder. He loves youth and action!   | Chisca Lower Lounge      |
| # 05—Finding your passion (2 sessions – Jr. High and Sr. High) | Spiritual gifts and prayerFind your place in God's action plan. You have special gifts – discover what they are and how to use them   | Cassie DeplatoMom of two teens, she enjoys sharing how we fit in God's great puzzle  | Black Elk Lounge         |
| Walk Humbly   |   |  |                          |
| # 06 – Bishop Walkabout  | In humble service, Bishop O'Neill is coming to you. The Bishop will be sitting in on parts of the various seminars so he can better interact with you as a fellow participant in the Quest weekend. This is your opportunity to walk with the leader of the Episcopal Church in Colorado and share experiences of being the change. | The Rt. Rev. Rob O'Neill,Bishop of the Diocese of Colorado   | All over!                |
| # 07—Gospel According to Brick                                 | Here is your chance to play with Lego at camp! Learn how to read, interpret, and express the stories of Scripture in a unique and fun manner. With over 100,000 pieces of Lego to use groups will plan, create, build, photograph, and prepare a presentation for program.  | Neil Riley is the Canon for Faith Formation for the Episcopal Diocese of Colorado and oversees children, youth, and young adult ministry. He is a self-professed geek, amateur photographer, a story-teller, and he loves to play with Lego! | Lariat Lounge            |
| # 8—Humble Hike to the Cross                                   | This is a great outdoor activity hiking up rocks and a bit of loose dirt, but the reward is a great view. It's a fun trip down the mountain too. We'll examine what it means to be on a pilgrimage. Please wear good tennis shoes or hiking boots, and it would be a good idea to bring warm clothes, and bring some water . | Bill CleweYouth leader at St. Matthias in Monument   | Wagon, lower parking lot |